DOBSON, NC - The Surry County Schools Educational Foundation is honored to announce the 2019 recipients of the Kristin O. Goins Memorial Scholarship. Four deserving North Surry High School seniors from the class of 2019 were awarded scholarships to attend community colleges, four-year colleges or universities.

Scholarship recipient, Stephanie Simpson plans to attend Appalachian State University, while Jeny Martinez Rodriguez plans to attend Forsyth Technical Community College. Recipients Emma Haynes and Carson Draughn both plan to attend the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Congratulations to each of these outstanding award recipients and their families.

The Kristin O. Goins Memorial Scholarship is named for a North Surry High School Junior who was involved in a tragic automobile accident. Kristin had a passion for life and making a difference in the lives of others. Her departing this world has been a tremendous loss for her family, friends, and community. Thus, Kristin's family wants to give North Surry High School seniors, like her, who share a passion for wanting to make a difference in the world, an opportunity to benefit from her scholarship and further their education.

The Surry County Schools Educational Foundation facilitates this scholarship.
