Surry Central Class of 1969 Donates to Educational Foundation

Members of the Surry Central High School Class of 1969 Fiftieth Reunion Planning Committee presented a check for over $5,000.00 to Mr. John Priddy, Chairperson of the Surry County Schools Educational Foundation, at a reunion meeting on June 27, 2019. Classmates donated the money at their recent reunion to benefit students at Surry Central High School.

“The Foundation does great work for the Surry County School System students and teachers,” said Mrs. Pat Widdowson, Surry Central High Class of 1969 Reunion Planning Committee member. “We are hopeful that our class members will continue to contribute to our endowment fund, and that other Surry County graduating classes will help to raise money to benefit our children in the future as well,” continued Widdowson.

Members of the Class of 1969 Reunion Planning Committee include Tommy Marion, Jo and Bobby Simpson, Brenda Tilley, Carolyn Scott, Etta Poindexter, Kathy Hunt Dobson, Lydia Burton Gambill, Doug Perkins, Brenda Whitaker, Geraldine Draughn, Kaye Atkins, Dianne Hamlin Hardy, Jim and Lynn Hewitt, Lynn Crouse, Bruce Branch, Trent Goodson, Vickie Burleson, and Pat Widdowson.

The Surry County Schools Educational Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization created to improve the educational level of our county, enhancing our ability to further education for competition in the global market. For more information about the Foundation or the endowment fund program, please contact Ashley Mills, Foundation Liaison, at (336) 386-8211 or millsa@surry.k12.nc.us.
