Plans Underway to Increase In-Person Learning for Students

Dobson, NC — On Monday, March 8th, the Surry County Board of Education met for their annual budget retreat session. At the end of the session, the Board reviewed the Return to Learn plan and voted unanimously for students to return to five days a week beginning April 12, 2021.

With the current guidelines, elementary students will return to in-person learning five days a week with middle and high school students, cohort A and cohort B, alternating Fridays.

As a result of Governor Cooper's press conference today, the Board of Education has a special called session scheduled for Friday, March 12, at 11:00 a.m. to review additional Return to Learn options. Any changes will be communicated thereafter.
